

pennsylvania

OFFICE OF VICTIM ADVOCATE

Giving Crime Victims a Voice

Courage • Strength • Resilience

August 9, 2019

Statement on Behalf of Victims: Cosby Hearing on August 12

Harrisburg, PA – On Monday, August 12, the Pennsylvania Superior Court will hear arguments regarding the appeal of Bill Cosby’s sexual assault conviction. No victim/survivors are scheduled to give testimony at the hearing.

The Commonwealth Victim Advocate Jennifer Storm will appear in court to represent the victims/survivors as requested by the prosecution, as well as survivors.

“The survivors in this case earnestly seek for the justice that has been given to be upheld,” shares Storm.

Interviews may be accepted after the hearing by a limited number of survivors in attendance, as well as the Victim Advocate.

MEDIA CONTACT: Commonwealth Victim Advocate Jennifer Storm 717.756.9741 or jstorm@pa.gov

###